POLICY

It is the policy of the Superior-Greenstone District School Board to provide home or hospital instruction for a pupil when:

- a) medical evidence is provided that the pupil cannot attend school, or,
- b) the Principal is otherwise satisfied that home instruction is required.

PROCEDURES

1.0 Medical Evidence

The parents, or pupil where the pupil is an adult, shall provide to the Principal, written information from a licensed medical doctor that the pupil cannot attend school. Such notice should specifically indicate what time interval is covered by the advisory.

2.0 Supervisory Officer

The Principal shall consult with a Supervisory Officer, if he/she is recommending home schooling.

3.0 Approval

Upon the approval of the Supervisory Officer, the Principal shall proceed to arrange for the home or hospital instruction covering the agreed time frame.
