POLICY

It is the policy of the Superior-Greenstone District School Board to provide home or hospital instruction for a pupil when:

- a) Medical evidence is provided that the pupil cannot attend school, or
- b) The Principal is otherwise satisfied that home instruction is required.

PROCEDURES

The parents, or pupil where the pupil is an adult, shall provide to the Principal, written information from a licensed medical doctor that the pupil cannot attend school. Such notice should specifically indicate what time interval is covered by the advisory.

The Principal shall consult with a Supervisory Officer, if he/she is recommending home instruction.

Upon the approval of the Supervisory Officer, the Principal shall proceed to arrange for the home or hospital instruction covering the agreed time frame.
