MARATHON, Ontario –The Superior-Greenstone District School Board is pleased to announce that Valerie Newton has been appointed as Principal of Manitouwadge High School, effective September 1, 2002. Ms. Newton, with 16 years of experience with our Board is currently a Program Leader at Manitouwadge High School and has had experience as a vice-principal. She holds a Master of Education from Lakehead University, Principal Qualifications, and additional qualifications in Guidance, Special Education and Visual Arts.

Andy Graham has been appointed as the Vice-Principal for Manitouwadge High School, effective September 1, 2002. Mr. Graham is currently employed as the Principal of Big River High School, a designated community school in Saskatchewan. Mr. Graham holds a Master of Education (Curriculum and Instruction) at Queen's University, and his background includes special education and administrative and teaching experience in Manitoba as well.

Our congratulations to both Valerie Newton and Andy Graham as they embark upon their new leadership roles at Manitouwadge High School.
