Aiming for the Top Tuition Scholarships Awarded to SGDSB Students

MARATHON, Ontario – We are proud to announce that 10 students from the Superior-Greenstone District School Board have won a Queen Elizabeth II Aiming for the Top Scholarship. This Ontario Government program rewards students who graduated with top marks at their high school and are currently studying at an Ontario post-secondary institution. Scholarship recipients are from:

Geraldton Composite High School

Amanda Coffey and Michelle Roy

Lake Superior High School

Stephen Figliomeni and Tiffany Stachiw

Manitouwadge High School

Angele Lamothe

Marathon High School

Francois Doiron and Gregory Johns

Nipigon-Red Rock District High School

Brendan Garlick and Brent Harris

Colleen Cooper

Students who maintain an 80 percent average at the postsecondary level can receive these scholarships which are worth a maximum of $3,500 per year, for up to four years.

“It is a pleasure each year to receive this information from the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities,” said Bette Bartlett, Chair of Superior-Greenstone DSB. “The financial support offered through the Aiming for the Top Scholarships is a welcome event in a student’s ongoing school career.”

“Superior-Greenstone DSB is proud of the academic achievement of these former, area high school students and we wish them continued success in their post-secondary studies,” said Bartlett.

Director of Education Lise Haman also extends her congratulations to the students and their teachers.

“We are very proud of what these students have accomplished,” said Haman.
