Superior-Greenstone DSB Appoints Principals

MARATHON, Ontario – The Superior-Greenstone District School Board is pleased to announce the following principal appointments. Robert Kim Asmussen will assume the position of principal for the Terrace Bay and Schreiber Public Schools, effective January 4, 2010, while Donna Fry will become Principal of Lake Superior High School in Terrace Bay, effective, August 30, 2010.

Mr. Asmussen replaces long-time principal, David Tamblyn who has moved to the Superior-Greenstone DSB office as Assistant to the Director of Education. Donna Fry will take over from long-time Lake Superior High School Principal Sharon Mackenzie who is retiring at the end of June 2010.

Mr. Asmussen comes to the board with 22 years of experience at Superior-North Catholic DSB teaching in the primary, junior and intermediate divisions. In the last two years, Mr. Asmussen's focus has been in administration developing projects related to communication technology including, Managing Information for Student Achievement and e-Learning. He holds a bachelor of Education and Honours Bachelor of Science in Forestry from Lakehead University. As well, he has completed the Principal's Qualification Program (Parts 1 and 2) and holds specialist qualifications for Computers in the Classroom and Mathematics Education (Primary/Junior).

Donna Fry, currently a Vice-Principal at Marathon High School commences her assignment as principal at Lake Superior High School beginning in the 2010-2011 school year. Ms. Fry came to the Superior-Greenstone DSB last year, after 24 years as a secondary teacher in the Trillium Lakelands DSB. Ms. Fry has extensive experience in the area of e-Learning with the Trillium Lakelands board's Virtual Learning Centre. She holds a Bachelor of Education from Laurentian University, a Bachelor of Science from Trent University with an Honours Equivalency in Biology and Geography from Nipissing University. Ms. Fry also has specialist qualifications in Special Education, Senior Geography and Science. She has completed Guidance (Part 1) and the Principal's Qualification Course (Part 1).

We extend our congratulations to Kim as he begins a new leadership role in the Terrace Bay and Schreiber Public Schools in January and to Donna as she completes her assignment at Marathon High School and turns her attention to Lake Superior High School next September.
