Superior-Greenstone DSB Appoints new Principals at Two High Schools

MARATHON, Ontario –. The Superior-Greenstone District School Board is pleased to announce the following administrative appointments effective on August 18, 2008.

Brenda Wiskin has been appointed Principal at Marathon High School. Prior to this, she was Vice-Principal at Marathon High School, Marjorie Mills Public School in Longlac and Margaret Twomey Public School in Marathon. She holds Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Education degrees. Ms. Wiskin has Principal's qualifications and additional qualifications in Special Education, Mathematics Education, Guidance, Business Studies, Co-operative Education, Reading and Computers in the Classroom.

Geraldton Composite High School will have a new Principal with the appointment of Al Luomala. Mr. Luomala has been Vice-Principal at Geraldton Composite High for seven years. He holds a Bachelor of Physical Education and Bachelor of Education degrees from Lakehead University. He has acquired a Principal's qualifications and additional specialist qualifications in Physical and Health Education and Co-operative Education.

We extend our congratulations to Brenda Wiskin and Al Luomala as they embark upon their new leadership roles with Superior-Greenstone District School Board.
