Superior-Greenstone DSB Appoints Cathy Tsubouchi as Superintendent of Business

MARATHON, Ontario – The Superior-Greenstone District School Board is pleased to announce that Cathy Tsubouchi will be appointed as Superintendent of Business and Treasurer of the board, effective December 1, 2010.

Ms. Tsubouchi moves into her new job with 22 years of service with the board as its Manager of Accounting Services. She takes over the portfolio from long-time Business Superintendent Bruce Rousseau who is retiring in December.

Ms. Tsubouchi holds an Honours Bachelor of Commerce degree from Lakehead University and is a Certified Management Accountant; with membership in the Society of Management Accountants of Ontario. She has also completed the Ministry of Education's Business Supervisory Officer's Certification Program.

In addition to her academic and professional certifications, Ms. Tsubouchi has extensive experience as a member of the board's negotiating team that has seen the successful conclusion of many collective agreements for various board bargaining units over the years. She has also managed in areas apart from accounting, providing service as the Office Staff Manager and for several years, she attended to duties as the Board Transportation Officer.

We extend our congratulations to Cathy as she begins a new leadership role as a Senior Administrator for Superior-Greenstone DSB.
