SGDSB Appoints New Vice Principal for Geraldton Composite High School

MARATHON, Ontario – The Superior-Greenstone District School Board is pleased to announce that Erica Cotton has been appointed as the new Vice Principal of Geraldton Composite High School, effective August 23, 2010.

Ms. Cotton has taught school for 22 years in the Nakina area during which time she has also facilitated many workshops on literacy and numeracy, as well as sessions on using Smartboards in the Classroom. In addition she has been an instructor for Lakehead University's online and independent studies for the Additional Qualifications courses.

Ms. Cotton possesses a Bachelor of Art Specialized Honours (History) from York University and earned her Bachelor of Education (Junior/Intermediate) from Lakehead University.. She has completed the Principal's Qualification Program (Parts 1 and 2), and she holds Senior (History), Primary and Kindergarten qualifications. Her specialist qualifications include math and reading and she has completed the Part 1 Special Education course.

We extend our congratulations to Erica Cotton as she begins her new leadership role as Vice-Principal of Geraldton Composite High School
