

Would You Be a Good E-Learner?

Qualities of a Successful E-Learner

Although E-learning courses occur outside of the classroom, students are still required to have good work habits in order for them to succeed. Like any student, an E-Learning student should:

- ✓ have adequate, basic computer skills
- ✓ be able to work independently
- ✓ be motivated
- ✓ be self-disciplined
- ✓ be able to complete work and assignments without supervision
- ✓ be able to meet deadlines
- ✓ be able to communicate in writing
- ✓ have frequent access to the Internet

Not sure if you have the habits and skills to be a successful E-Learner? Carefully answer the E-Learning questionnaire before enrolling in an E-course.
